Day of Broad Smile
In Taft Camp.

Washington Politicians Jubilant Over Oklahoma's Surprise Party.

Indicative of Passing of the Roosevelt Mania; Prestige for President.

Regarded as Symptomatic of Undercurrent of Republican Feeling.

BY SUMNER CURTIS.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] This was the day of the broad smile in the Taft camp. Gov. Hadley's apostasy, as some have been inclined to regard the Missouri executive's declaration in favor of Roosevelt, is more than counterbalanced in the minds of the President's friends by the election under Taft instructions of the two delegates to the Chicago convention.

Two delegates of a total of 1076—Republican National convention this year—are not much to brag about, to be sure, but the circumstances incidentally supply the significance. The administration forces had not expected to carry the Fourth Oklahoma district. It has been practically conceded to be afflicted with insupportable Roosevelt mania.

RESULT IS A SURPRISE.

Connecticut Sends
a Weird Tale

Amateur Aviator Is Credited With Rendering Heroic Assistance.

Skims Surface of River and Child Grabs Rods of His Machine.

She Is Hauled Into Safety
as Her Ice Raft Drifts Over Falls.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
[THOMPSONVILLE (CT.) Jan. 24.—

Exclusive Dispatch.] What is believed to be the first rescue from drowning by aeroplane occurred a mile south of this village yesterday afternoon. The circumstances surrounding the rescue are most spectacular.

Dora Pease, a 6-year-old child, residing in a small cottage on the banks of the Connecticut River, while returning from kindergarten stopped a few minutes to watch men harvesting ice on the river. Her childish curiosity aroused, she crept to the open space in the river below the ice cutters, who did not notice her. Two large cakes of ice attracted her attention, and seating herself upon them she began to amuse herself by propelling them along the smooth surface of the frozen river.

Suddenly the ice cutters were aroused by a loud splash and a child's screams, and were horrified to see the child seated on an ice cake, floating rapidly down the river toward the Enfield Falls, 150 feet away. An attempt to rescue the child by means of a long rope failed. Several of the men ran along the banks of the river, and one of them, throwing off his heavy boots, jumped into the water and swam toward the child. The child's attention was attracted by the man, and she reached the brink of the falls and, in a few minutes the child was within a few feet of the falls, which roared and surged in the water struck the rocks thirty feet below.

The attention of the panic-stricken men was attracted from the child in her perilous position by a whirling above them as Charles S. Jenkins, a shoe-repairer and amateur aviator, swept down from the Suffolk hills to the west and over the river. He grasped the ice cutters with his hands, and the child, who seemed to them to be at the very brink of the falls.

The child's attention had also been attracted to the aeroplane, which was swooping down upon her, and kneeling upon the ice raft, she waved her hands and screamed to the aviator. As the machine passed over the cakes of ice, the child made a leap and was swept down upon her, and support far below the engine, and was lifted to the seat by Jenkins. Just as the child leaped, the ice reached the brink of the falls, and the little girl tumbled into the water.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Three members of the reigning house of England—the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the Princess Patricia—visited the Wall Street district today. Where money kings come and go daily without ado, their royal highnesses found the way choked with cheering throngs. Ambassador Reid took the party in automobiles down the Wall Street canyon, and they were met at the stock exchange by President S. H. Thompson. News of the visit preceded their arrival, and a crowd of nearly 2000 persons gathered.

When they entered the exchange, the interest was so general that the party was stopped for more than ten minutes. After being shown the operations on the floor, the visitors departed.

From the exchange the visitors went up town for a visit to the Mills Hotel, to see the homes of hundreds of persons of small means, erected by the late D. O. Mills, father-in-law of Ambassador Reid.

A luncheon at the Fifth-avenue home of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., was the feature of the afternoon. The Duchess and Princess were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills at a dinner and musicale. Sixty persons attended the dinner and more than 200 came for the musicale.

The Duke will leave for Washington tomorrow afternoon. In his absence the Duchess and Princess will attend the opera here tomorrow night.

The walks of the Duke, unattended, came for the musicale.

Fasting Specialist Alleged to

Woman Accused of Starving a Patient to Gain Her Wealth.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
SEATTLE (Wash.) Jan. 24.—The defense in the introduction of medical testimony, which will be done tomorrow, the State today virtually completed its case against Mrs. Linda Burdett Hammond, the fasting specialist accused in the Kitsap county court at Port Orchard of starving to death Miss Claire Williamson, a wealthy Englishwoman, who died at the Hospital "starvation sanatorium," May 19, 1911.

The State surprised the defense today by calling Mrs. Minnie Smith, who was laundress at the apartment-house in Seattle where the Williamson sisters lived prior to their removal to Olalla, April 22. Mrs. Smith corroborated the testimony of Miss Dorothea Williamson, sister of the dead woman and joint heir to a $500,000 Australian estate, regarding the gradual emaciation of the sister under Mrs. Hammond's treatment.

AFTER THEIR MONEY.

Cashier William J. Collier of the Northern Bank and Trust Company of Seattle testified today that either the husband or Mrs. Hammond had made such a request.

Margaret Conway, the Australian nurse, was recalled to the stand to identify two letters as having been delivered to her on arrival of her steamer at Honolulu en route from Australia to British Columbia. In these letters there was furnished the information that Claire Williamson considered herself dangerously ill.

Dr. Augustus Brewer, a Seattle physician, testified that she had cared for the Williamson sisters a short time before the cases were taken by Mrs. Hammond, and no serious problems affecting the health of either existed.

BODY UNLAWFULLY MOVED.

The fact that the body of the dead woman was removed from Kitsap county, where death occurred, to King county for cremation at Seattle without proper observance of the law, was brought out when William Borthwick, an undertaker, took the

SAYS GAG LAW RULES CLERKS.

High Officials of the Postal Service Are Accused.

Denver Editor Complains to House Committee.

Calls Railway Mail Men Victims of Tyranny.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Charles E. Smith, editor of the Denver Post, today complained to the House Committee on Postoffice and Civil Service that the postal department was "a law unto itself" and that its officials were "a law unto themselves."

Specific regulations of the post-office service, he said, forbid clerks to discuss wrecks. He charged that "the postmaster-general has not stopped short of misinforming the committee and the public as to conditions under which clerks work."

A LETTER FILE.
Mr. Walter exhibited a letter file in which he said he had 500 letters from mail clerks reporting unsanitary and unsafe mail cars and said the positions of the authors would be jeopardized if the names were published.

"It is a remarkable situation that this gag law of the department should keep Congress from getting at the facts," said Chairman Moore.

"We can subpoena these men, but we cannot protect their jobs if they testify."

Mr. Walter produced statistics showing that from 1901 to 1909 inclusive, 117 railway mail clerks were killed, 318 seriously injured and more than 4000 slightly injured. For a given ten years in Great Britain 20 clerks were killed and thirty-one injured.

LIBERAL INTERPRETATION.
The witness charged that the post-office department had been most liberal in its interpretation of the recent law which required the railroad companies to furnish safe and sanitary cars. He said the cars furnished were still bad and that clerks were complained to report them in sanitary condition against their wishes.

Carl C. Van Dyke of St. Paul, representing the tenth division of railway mail clerks, complained of unsanitary cars, undermanned crews and delayed mails.

Smoot Reports Bill That Will Make Homesteading in America as Inviting as in Canada.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—In the hope of checking emigration of American farmers to the Canadian Northwest, amendments to liberalize public land laws were favorably reported today by Senator Smoot from the Public Lands Committee.

The enforced term of residence on a homestead would be reduced from five years to three and a homesteader would be permitted to absent himself from his claim six months every year.

INSISTS ON BETTER SANITATION AT GUAYAQUIL.

Death of Naval Commander Arrested Government to Importance of Wiping Out Yellow Fever in Interest Particularly of the Panama Canal.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The death from yellow fever today at Guayaquil, Ecuador, of Commander Levi C. Bortolotto, in command of the American gunboat Yorktown, guarding American interests there, will result in the American government insisting on the sanitation of that port. Besides the commander, an enlisted man has died and three others are seriously ill.

Should Ecuador temporize, it is said the United States may issue a quarantine against Guayaquil in the interests particularly of the Panama Canal.

Upon receipt of the news of the death of Commander Bortolotto, the Navy Department was notified that peace had been suitably restored in Ecuador to permit the withdrawal of the Yorktown. Secretary Meyer thereupon issued orders for the gunboat to proceed at once to Santa Elena, 110 miles west of Guayaquil, and to cruise Maryland as the latter approaches that port.

Commander Bortolotto was stricken with yellow fever shortly after his vessel arrived at Guayaquil to protect American interests during the revolution. He was a native of Pennsylvania.

Clarence W. Wood, ordinary seaman aboard the vessel, died yesterday, according to advices received today at the Navy Department. Wood's home was in Yonkers, N. Y.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
GUAYAQUIL (Ecuador) Jan. 24.—Commander Levi C. Bortolotto of the United States cruiser Yorktown, reported ill several days ago with yellow fever, died suddenly aboard ship here at 2 o'clock this morning.

A later dispatch reported that he was progressing favorably. A cablegram was received January 19 by Mrs. Bortolotto at San Francisco from her husband reading as follows: "Contracted fever ashore about 19th; taken sick 13th; favorable so far; outlook undetermined as yet."

Supercedes Massage as Wrinkle Remover

(The Woman Beautiful.)

Many women regularly visit the beauty specialist to have their wrinkles ironed out with the help of hot applications, cold creams and massage. Most of us realize that there comes a time when no amount of persuasion of this sort will avail.

The "wrinkle removing" is wrong in principle. Both the hot water and the massaging tend to expand and loosen the skin, besides softening the muscular foundation. The very opposite result should be aimed at. (The issue should be strengthened, the skin tightened, so that it will stand up to wrinkles.)

The best preparation for the purpose can be made at home by dissolving 1 oz. salicylic in 1/2 pint witch-hazel. Use as a wash lotion. The effect is really marvelous. Tell the druggist you want the powdered salicylic, which dissolves immediately.

Big and Little Bosses of Atlantic City Sentenced.

They All Got What They Deserve.

Admitted to Bail Pending New Trial Appeal.

IBY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

ATLANTA, Jan. 24.—The trial of the big and little bosses of Atlantic City, recently convicted of unlawful participation in awarding contracts to a company in Atlantic City, was continued today.

Kuehnle was released on bail, pending an appeal for a new trial. Because of the personality of "Commodore" Kuehnle, sent here from Atlantic City, every citizen of Atlantic City has an interest in his case.

A MILLIONAIRE.
Mr. Kuehnle is reported to be a millionaire. He is the president of the Atlantic City Hotel and Casino Co. and a director and heavy stockholder in several others.

The trial was conducted by Supreme Court Justice Hattach, sent here from Newark by Gov. Wilson especially for that purpose. Attorney General Hattach, by Gov. Wilson to assist the prosecutor.

Thomas McDermott and George Thomas, convicted of violating election laws in Atlantic City, were sentenced to six months and three months in the penitentiary and to pay the costs of prosecution.

OTHERS SENTENCED.
The freetholders of Atlantic County, Pennsylvania, Harry May and Frank Kuehnle, who were convicted of accepting money for granting road contracts, were given one year each in the penitentiary.

An attorney who represented all of the defendants told the court he had filed an appeal with the Court of Appeals at Trenton, the last day of the term, Jan. 22, and asked that the men be admitted to bail, which was granted.

SENT TO JAIL IN SAN FRANCISCO WITH ALLEGEDLY OF FINES FOR CAUSING A NEW RIOT.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—"We deny the right of free speech to any law-abiding citizen in San Francisco but our women must be respected."

With this statement today Police Weller sentenced Herbert Wright, a member of the Industrial Workers of the World, to ten days in jail for disturbing the peace. Wright and Frank Stahl, also charged with disturbing the peace, were given alternative sentences of six months in jail. They elected jail for ten days.

Wright caused a riot in the heart of the downtown district in San Francisco when he called a woman on a street corner. The rioter's remarks caused police consternation.

PASADENA, Jan. 23.—"You talk about the scenery of the old world. Why, it is not to be compared with American scenery. And history? I have seen 700 volumes relating to the Pacific Coast alone which might be termed ancient history. There is more history back of the Columbia River than back of the Rhine. If there isn't, I'll drink it dry."

This is one of the things that Dr. Roland Dwight Grant, originator of the "See America First" movement, had to say last night at the reception in the city to pay a visit of a few days to his nephew, Eugene Grant of No. 221 Park street.

Despite the fact that he has spoken on the subject from the lecture platform for more than twenty-five years, the famous mountain-climbing enthusiast is more vigorous than ever in his praise of American scenery. "Think of it," he said, referring to the fact that the arrival of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and their daughter, Princess Patricia, in New York last Tuesday was the first visit of British royalty to that city in more than 150 years. "I once told King George (he was then Prince of Wales) that the finest scenery was to be found in America. Later the Queen did visit Lake Louise in Canada, and I have heard that she agreed with my statement. The King did not make the trip. He went hunting, instead."

"It is not through my patriotism to my country that I say we have the best scenery. I have traveled much and I know that to be a fact. More Americans are now touring America before they go to Europe, and more Europeans are coming to America than ever before. I believe that my efforts have been partly responsible for bringing this about. The most magnificent, the grandest spot in all the world, is Ours, Colo. And right here in Pasadena, you have a view for one of its kind cannot be equalled, I care not where you go. There is nothing in Italy that can compare with it."

Dr. Grant declares that the time is not far distant when the phrase "to go to America" will mean all, and more, to Europeans than "to go abroad" now means to Americans. "It is bound to be," he said. "America, and especially the West, is coming to attract attention such as no other part of the world has ever attracted. The incomparable. An evidence of this is that many places are being written with it for a background, and they are attracting attention in every country."

WILL ARRIVE SUNDAY.
The date of the arrival of Claude Casimir-Perier, the noted French writer on economics and harbor expert, was made known in a letter received yesterday by F. W. Kellogg of Pasadena. He is due to reach Pasadena next Sunday and while here will be the guest of Kellogg, who made his acquaintance last summer in Europe. In his letter the Frenchman says in part:

"I am particularly glad to begin my inquiry on the Pacific Coast with Los Angeles, as I am much interested in the effort of the Los Angeles people towards securing a municipal or at least independent harbor."

"My inquiry is almost completed as far as the eastern States are concerned. I know that the information I may gather in the West and on the Pacific Coast will be far more valuable and important to the French people as I think to no other region on the whole American continent. It is quite as deeply concerned with the opening of the Panama Canal."

Casimir-Perier is an accredited representative of the French Government and comes to America to investigate with reference to trade expansion and trade developments as they will affect his country. While in Pasadena he may address the pupils at the Throop Polytechnic Institute.

WOULD HAVE JOINT PLANT.
The first subject that will be taken up at the meeting of the Committee of Interest Committee of Eighteen tomorrow night at the Hotel Raymond will be the question of the feasibility of the erection of an incinerator to be owned and operated jointly by Pasadena, South Pasadena and Alhambra. Although Pasadena has already called an election to vote upon a proposed bond issue, securing the city's support to the proposed road, which would make Poothill boulevard a part of the long highway.

PATIENTS IN DEATH.
Mrs. Elizabeth P. Spear, wife of Dr. Benjamin B. Spear, of No. 1017 North Lake avenue, died last Tuesday night at her home. She was 80 years old and death resulted from a cold which she caught a week ago when celebrating with her husband the fifty-sixth anniversary of their wedding.

Mrs. Spear had lived in Pasadena for twenty-one years and had many friends. She leaves two sons, Arthur D. Spear of New York, and H. W. Spear of Pasadena, and a daughter, Mrs. Morris J. Hole and Miss Mary E. Spear, both of Los Angeles.

The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Mr. C. Hull, will officiate. Interment will be made in Mountain View Cemetery.

CITY BRIEFS.
The annual meeting of the Alhambra Country Club held at the new clubhouse last Tuesday night, resulted in the election of the following officers: J. B. Coulson, president; Col. John Lambert, vice-president; David Blankenhorn, treasurer, and A. F. Gartz, secretary. All were re-elected except Gartz. Two directorships were added to the board, William H. Vedder and Lawrence Simson were named to occupy the offices.

An enjoyable program has been arranged for an open meeting of John F. Godfrey Post, Grand Army of the Republic, which will be held at G. A. R. Hall tonight.

The Canadian Society of Pasadena has made elaborate plans for a meeting to be held tonight at the Shakespeare Clubhouse.

RAYMOND RECEPTION.
No larger or more artistically appointed reception has been enjoyed this winter by Pasadena and Pasadena society women than that given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Walter Raymond at Hotel Raymond, which was elaborately decorated for the function.

Through the halls a pergoia effect was produced by interwoven ropes of asparagus plumosus and the lamia showed a bow of yellow acacia.

White carnations in clusters were also used in the gold reception room was used for refreshments, and her guests alone, orchids, lilies of the valley and white carnations were used in profusion.

Mrs. Raymond wore an imported gown of old rose draped in self-toned chiffon, with a tunic of gold lace embroidery. The ballroom was open and ornamented with potted palms and festoons of smilax. The writing room was used for refreshments, and here American Beauty roses lent beauty and fragrance.

LONG BEACH, Jan. 24.—In Justice Underwood's court today a warrant was issued for the arrest of Walter Albert Mayr, a financial broker of Los Angeles, charging him with a felony under a section of the Penal Code, in that he has failed to provide for his wife, Anna Etta Mayr. The case is conspicuous by reason of the social prominence of husband and wife.

[Office of The Times, No. 12, Fair Oaks Ave.]

LONG BEACH, Jan. 24.—In Justice Underwood's court today a warrant was issued for the arrest of Walter Albert Mayr, a financial broker of Los Angeles, charging him with a felony under a section of the Penal Code, in that he has failed to provide for his wife, Anna Etta Mayr. The case is conspicuous by reason of the social prominence of husband and wife.

The Supreme Court decided that neither party was entitled to divorce. Since that time Mayr is alleged to have refused to provide for the wife and the criminal action now brought is the outgrowth of that refusal. Metropolitan Squad in two lottery raids on the outskirts of Chinatown yesterday afternoon. Three Chinese were arrested and a large quantity of lottery tickets were seized at Kim Yuen Co's store, No. 518 North
 Los Angeles street. At Wing's place a restaurant at No. 512 North Los Angeles street, more gambling paraphernalia was confiscated. No arrests were made there because the players escaped. They had so many exits ready that the raiders could not cover them.

Acting Sergeant Varey, of the Metropolitan Squad planned the raids. He and Officer Workman stationed themselves in Sanchez alley and guarded the rear entrances of the places. Officers Kennedy, Lloyd and West made the attack upon Wing's Place. Officers Childers, assisted by Officers Luth and Carter, raided Kim's establishment.

The attack upon the two places was made simultaneously and from the front and rear of each, promptly at 12:30 o'clock. A minute later Childers was raiding Kim's store and Kennedy was ransacking Wing's quarters in the basement.

Ming Ling, Gee Foo and Jim Lee were arrested by Childers' men. When Childers, Luth and Carter jumped from the police auto, Lee, who was standing on the sidewalk as "lookout" touched a button. Instantly every door in the place was locked.

The lives of human beings who do not own machines must be protected," said Justice Heave yesterday after instructing the motorcycle policemen to arrest all persons who are caught going at the rate of fifty miles an hour on the public roads. "These men have become altogether too reckless and the practice must be stopped."

The instructions were issued as a result of the failure of a man who gave the name of Roy Wilson to the arresting officers and his address as No. 1220 West Second street to appear. Wilson is now supposed to be a fictitious name. The address given is a vacant lot. The number carried by the machine was one issued to an owner who gave his address as Sonora. The Wilson case was one of peculiarly aggravated recklessness.

When stopped by Officer Cannon, he was going over fifty miles an hour through the dense mass of vehicles bound for the aviation meet at Dominguez Field. He was serpent-ining and wriggling his machine in and out among the other automobiles and carriages and paying no attention to the rules of the road or any other regulations.

EXAMPLE IF CAPTURED.

When arrested he made light of his actions and said he had not been speeding "very much." He agreed

The begins of frozen eastern tourists coming toward Los Angeles. Welcome to our fair city.

Oh, well, nobody imagined there was anything to investigate in the construction of the aqueduct, anyhow.

And the old-fashioned man who, who, who, always said he was "under the weather," what has become of him?

Andrew Carnegie says that he has played a game of poker in his life. Nobody but sure things for the Laird of Skibo.

The Woodrow Wilson boom refuses to collapse, in spite of the fact that it has been collapsed by Mrs. Henry Watterson.

It will be noticed that the Duke of Connaught, although a valiant hunter, did not go for the Tammany tiger when in New York.

It is understood that Col. Bryan is justly furious over the fact that his name has been placed on the Nebraska primary election ballot.

The war in Ecuador is over and it is now in order for the Morocco campaign to be resumed if the troops of the Emperor are sufficiently rested.

Why didn't someone call the attention of Link Steffens to the weather in the morning before it became so severe? He would have arranged it much better.

Those who are not in a position to be much moved as they desire on account of the figures may take some pleasure in reading the reports of the packers' trial detailing how they fix prices.

The country will not go to the demagogue even if J. Pierpont Morgan is called for Egypt. Richard Harding Davis has just landed from his England trip, and he has taken to his bed.

Prof. Scott of Michigan University has reduced the alphabet to seventeen letters, but on account of circumstances over which he has no control the other also will be there to do business at the old rate.

California is standing staunchly for tolls to American ships through the Panama Canal and the presence of ex-President Frank P. Flint in Washington during the debate on the subject ought to help matters.

One hundred and ten members of the graduating class of the Los Angeles High School next week. This is a grand record that ought not to be spoiled by any reading a paper on the subject. "For America and Austria."

Senator La Follette is still making speeches, but, like the Texas president, continues to "talk and talk, but not to do, and argue and argue and not to do." Which makes all of the difference in the world.

The Democratic House saved $125,000 salaries of useless employees, but it has an item of $40,000,000 for public buildings that has received the approval of that body. Simply another case of saving at the expense of the usual Democratic way.

If the picture films are to be continued we desire to call the attention of the committee to the young man who climbed scores of miles through the forest and up mountain slopes only to shoot a pair of immaculate cuffs at the end of the film.

A Long Beach contractor has spent a lot of money trying to harness the ocean by installing the lines of Byron in "Cable Car's Pilgrimage." In his apostrophe to the ocean, where the poet says that man's control of the mighty deep "stops with shore."

The Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada, will call upon President Taft today as the representative of the British King George. It is possible that the conversation supposed to have taken place between the Governor of North Carolina and the Governor of South Carolina may be repeated.

With Schley and Evans dead, only DeLoach and Hobson remain of the naval heroes whose names were on every tongue years ago. As Rip Van Winkle put it, "Whitting the village of Falling Water, the man was unrecognized by his friends." DeLoach was forgotten when we're gone.

Democratic incapacity in dealing with tariff is conspicuous. The party has a large majority in the House, and it is the free-trade element was largely in the of the who favored a duty that would be to gain support in the West and the Southwest. Thus overboard with the fundamental Democratic principle of raw materials.

The divorce evil is in evidence in more states than in California and it is stated that a bill is introduced in the Legislature aiming to introduce a system whereby every application for a divorce would be referred to a committee of available means of reconciliation. Some States a proctor takes testimony and recommends whether a divorce should be granted.

The WHITE COCKATOO

The Countess had every reason to hate her daughter-in-law because, after all, when Lord Urshott married her, she had been an inmate of a western dance hall. But granting that, did the Countess' servant, Badur Kahn, exercise over her a strange, mysterious control learned in India, and did this control compel Lady Urshott to be so solicitous about the fate of the White Cockatoo that it led to her death? And, if so, was the Countess responsible?

Such is the idea of a thrilling story of mystery by Mary Austin, author of "The Arrow Maker," one of the plays of the New Theatre. This is a sample of the short stories.

The same number contains five articles on vital questions of current interest: "Germany's Foreign Trade," Wickersham's reply to recent criticisms of his activities against Trusts, Wiley on Back to the Farm, Ross on the Middle West, and Cooper on the American Undergraduate. This February number is a great issue of a great magazine.

D., Imperial Potentate of the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine will arrive on the Owl this morning at 4:15 o'clock and will be met at Arcade station by a committee of twenty-five Nobles of Al Mahalkah Temple, headed by Potentate Flint. LAST OF QUARTETTE.
Alleged White Slave, Detected, Throws Up His Hands With the Request, "Don't Shoot."

When Ferdinand Roy threw up his hands as he came out of the Pacific Bank building yesterday and cried to Policeman Robinson of this city, "Don't shoot," the latter, who had been accused last week by Chief of Police Sebastian of being white slave, was released.

When Sebastian saw the man, he was actually in the company of the other three when they were taken to the police station. Sebastian, who had been accused last week by Chief of Police Sebastian of being white slave, was released.

THEY ARE DEE-LIGHTED.
Patrolmen Escort Man Who Calls Himself Col. Roosevelt to Receiving Hospital, Where He's Kept.

A dignified appearing individual walked into the Central Police Station shortly before daylight yesterday and startled the desk sergeant with the announcement: "I'm Col. Roosevelt—Theodore Roosevelt of Oyster Bay."

"What's that?" asked the sergeant, looking up quickly. "An I said before," reiterated the stranger, "I'm Col. Roosevelt—Theodore Roosevelt of Oyster Bay."

"I want to make the announcement that I'll accept the Presidential nomination," said the stranger.

"Come right this way, and we'll show you the man who'll give it to you," said a patrolman.

The man was presented to the assistant surgeon of the Receiving Hospital. This Col. Roosevelt is Charles Cottrell, a dishwasher. He had a mania for renting a room for a week, staying in it one night and then moving.

SHE FACES EVICTION.
But Constable Egan's the Hard-heartedness to Serve Papers on Unfortunate Woman, Giving Receipt.

Widowed and with an invalid son of 2 years, Mrs. Salina Boyle, aged 55 years, faced eviction from her little home at No. 787 East Seventeenth street yesterday afternoon when the papers were placed in the hands of Constable Egan to serve. But the papers were not served and if Egan can help it they will not be.

"I can't do it," said Egan. "That woman works hard in a laundry to keep herself and her son in food and here she has fallen behind on her rent of just $5 for her rent. The son used to work in the Miller Lintotype Company, but he has fallen behind on his lead poisoning and has never been able to earn a living since. He is ill and she has to take care of him. I forget one thing if I told to do something else."

Mrs. Boyle has been given a small box-full of furniture, scarcely enough to furnish half a room, but she did not leave last night and maybe a suggestion of the warm-hearted constable will be taken up and a purse raised for her.

How a Woman May Retain Her Youth

The woman who wants to look young must taboo massage cream and liquid rouge. She will only harden the structure of her face and destroy the fine texture of the skin," said Mrs. Margaret Holmes Bates, the well-known author, to a Chicago Journal representative.

"Reputable physicians have declared that if she indulges in artificial methods she risks losing her health," she continues. "The brilliant method of treating a bad complexion is by using ordinary mercurized wax; this adds nothing to the complexion, but removes it instead. This wax, obtainable at any drug store, flakes off the sallow or blotchy outer skin in fine particles, gently, without harming the skin beneath, which gradually makes its appearance. The brilliant, beautiful complexion thus obtained is a new one—quite different from a patched-up old complexion. This is one way to retain youthful looks. An ounce of mercurized wax is sufficient. It is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning."

SEE WOMAN'S CLOTHES.

Also Carried Gun and Terrible Her Husband—He Charges She Threatened Him, But She Denies It.

The evidence in this case reminds me of the days when I used to hear testimony in insanity commitments," Justice of the Peace Young remarked from the bench yesterday afternoon, as he started to sum up the case of the People against Linda Howe, accused of threats to do her husband, Charles Howe, great bodily harm, even to slay him.

Everybody except the witnesses enjoyed the hearing, but the witnesses, from Charles Howe, the husband, who admitted that he had been in the asylum at Patton twice, to the defendant, who spoke in a dialect of Fierdard, French and New York English, were too much in earnest to enjoy anything.

Two neighbors declared that Mrs. Howe had aimed a gun at her husband, but admitted that he was in the dark. Then the witness in her broken English, that gave the court stenographer the effort of his life to keep up with it, told the court that she had gone down town in men's clothes to see what her husband was doing, and that the reason she had a revolver was that she was afraid to go home alone.

AUTOS ON FINAL END OF NATIONAL HIGHWAY.

Out of the Wilderness.

OCEAN-TO-OCEAN ROAD TOUR MARKS NEW ERA.

Desert Rats Cross the Sands of the Sahara and Tour Into Orange Groves on Most Remarkable Undertaking Ever Planned, Which Proves an Immense Success from Yuma to the Goal in Los Angeles.

BY BERT C. SMITH.

DESERT RATS who are proud of the name, and who will fight fiercely for a national highway, reached this city last night after completing the first automobile tour ever conducted across the desert. A long line of motor cars climbed out of the Salton Sea basin and toured the route chosen by the delegates at Yuma for the California end of the ocean-to-ocean highway. Clouds of fine dust, wafted in moonbeams along the ribbon-like roads of the Sahara, announced the coming of the large delegation more than an hour before the cars reached Banning.

From Yuma to Brawley and thence across the lowlands to Mecca the tourists dared to travel. It was a hazardous undertaking, but every car that started finished the run, and every man who left his home to battle for the smooth highway from sea to sea in Los Angeles to carry the battle to what looks like a signal victory.

No blank cartridges are to be fired. The delegates who have conquered the sands will not brook interference. They have a plan of action which appears to be fair and will present it at the convention today. These pioneers who have blazed trails across the sands before roads existed and who have dared to drive touring cars over the desert when many said it was an impossible feat are here to win.

When the convention is called to order this morning, the sun-browned motorists will be on hand with arguments that should be convincing if they are presented in the same way as they were on the long tour. From the moment the cars left the Colorado River until they rolled up in front of the Times Office last night, it was a succession of ovations, with the townsmen vying with each other as to who could do the most for the men and women on the run.

DEEP SAND.

There is deep sand on this proposed national highway route. This was learned by every tourist today who chugged through the bottom of the Whitewater River. Yes, the cars came through on low gear, but they came through. There is nothing to be ashamed of. No excuses need be made. The sand is there, but tons and tons of fine road-building material are also there, and the tourists saw mountains of it when they crossed the plains.

One of the remarkable features of the tour is the fact that large fifty-horse-power cars and small twenty-horse-power motors completed the journey. When W. W. Woodman came through on the big Thomas, it looked like a big car's job, but as the tourists looked back and saw Philo Jones of Brawley shooting his twenty-horse-power Ford through the sands it seemed like a picnic. This tour which could be made by a midsize car with three passengers.

Again when the Overland machine stuck close to the Stoddard-Dayton, the big pilot car, the motorists realized that this route through Banning can be used at any time by those who tour from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Cars of several makes and drivers who have had experience and others who lack experience made the tour.

C. E. Guest in the Halladay roadster made a remarkable run. He was always in the going, and when last expected Guest and his partner, Roy Benton, would roll up, and the Halladay, with a burst of speed, would be sent digging into the sands, always to conquer the stretches, no matter how bad.

AT INDO.

At Indio the novel series of impromptu receptions was commenced. The cars had been welcomed at Brawley. The representative men had greeted the Desert Rats. Then, after the cars had covered the wilderness, the tourists were received by the women and men of Indio, in the center of the Coachella Valley, and the women proved the right kind of hostesses. They waited table while the hungry hordes devoured the many good things prepared.

Into the deep dust of the desert the cars were sent to Palm Springs, and here the novel reception prepared by Dr. H. F. Coffman, proved the finishing touch for the hard work of the tour. The Desert Inn was illuminated, and Dr. Coffman himself welcomed the men on the cars. There was ample accommodations. This proved a pleasing surprise. Mrs. Coffman herself took

Long Line of Motor Cars

That finished ocean-to-ocean tour at The Times office last night. Above is the bunch of boosters at the City Hall, Pomona, with the "Desert Rats" from Imperial Valley ready to cheer for the national highway. Below is W. W. Woodman, the oldest man who ever crossed the desert. He is eighty-six years young and made the tour from Yuma in his big Thomas car without complaint.

Too Much Class.

PACKY M'FARLAND SHOWS UP ENGLISH PUG WARD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Packy McFarland, Chicago welterweight, defeated Jack Ward, who claimed to be the best lightweight in England, in six fast rounds at the National Athletic Club tonight.

There was a big turnout of local sporting men to see the contest, and around the ring were many noted New York followers of boxing, among them Billy Gibson, Mike Neuman and other ring celebrities.

The bout attracted additional interest from the fact that two weeks ago Ward, on his initial appearance in this country, stopped Tommy O'Keefe in two rounds. O'Keefe was considered a fairly good local lightweight and at a theatrical exhibition some time ago gave McFarland an argument for four rounds.

On this dope and the booming that

Ward got from the fact that his manager, Bob Deady, one of the oldest fight handlers in this city, had gone to the expense of bringing Ward from England, dead game sports felt that the scrap would be worth going to see. Popular prices prevailed and the big arena of the National Athletic Club was packed to the doors when the contestants in the main bout stepped through the ropes. Ward was given a big reception, but it was nothing to the cheering which greeted smiling Packy as he climbed into the ring.

There was only one knock-down in the sixth round. Packy dropped Ward with an uppercut to the stomach. Ward did not take the count, but was up in an instant, and by good ring generalship stayed the round out. Ward was cut and bleeding and in bad shape at the end.

McFarland did not have a mark. The receipts were about $3000.

CRIGER AND AGNEW SOLD.

Berry Announces Deal With Northwest League.

May Sell Third Baseman to the Same People.

Half of Angel Team Signed Up Already.

BY GARY OLIVER.

Pitchers Criger and Agnew sold outright to Vancouver club of the Northwest League.

This was the announcement made yesterday by Manager Henry Berry of the Los Angeles ball team, and it will come as a surprise to the local fans who thought that Criger might stick in this league.

Criger did very good work here for a time, but last year he did not seem to be up to form and the fact that Berry has sold him to Kittle Brashers shows that the manager did not think much of him. A big lot of the fans thought the same way, and yet the news will come as an astonishment. Agnew was weighed and found wanting last summer.

Berry conveyed another piece of intelligence yesterday in the statement that the Seattle team of the Northwest League was trying to buy his third baseman, Duffin, and the chances are that this deal will go through, for the very good reason that Berry has a star in Metzger at third and does not need an extra man for that place, inasmuch as he has the over-reliable Delmas to fill in there in addition to Howard and two other men whose names he will not give out.

The sale of Criger and Agnew means that the Los Angeles team will have to get along with two less pitchers than it had last season, but this will probably be easy, for it had some last year that it could spare and a few that it could not use to any advantage.

Up to date more than one-half of the players that Berry wants have signed for this year, and he says that the others he really cares for have written him that they will sign and are satisfied with the contracts offered them.

Those who have already signed and sent their contracts in are Dillon, Nagle, Daley, Tozer, Smith, Boles, Leveque and Halla. Check, Slagle, Palmer, Laird, Delmas, Howard, Hot-muller, Lober and Brooks have not signed, but will, before the training season opens.

There are no trades on now for any players on the Angel team, according to Berry. He says he is willing to pay

RHEUMATISM

If every one would realize the danger of Rheumatism, the first symptoms of the disease begin proper treatment of it, a great deal of suffering and misery could be avoided. But most persons are inclined to treat the early pains lightly, neglecting the trouble allow the blood to become so impure with uric acid that Rheumatism becomes firmly established, and then the sufferer "wakes up" to the fact that it is a most dangerous disease.

Uric acid gets into the blood usually because of system irregularities, such as chronic constipation, imperfect kidney action and minor stomach troubles, to which we give no thought. But each of these disturbances has a direct effect on the members, which prevents the proper removal of uric acid from the system. This uric acid which is quickly absorbed into the blood, and pouring forms uric acid which is quickly absorbed into the blood. Then the foundation is laid for Rheumatism.

Occasional pains shooting through the body, will gradually become frequent and severe, the muscles get sore, and the flesh sensitive and feverish in spots. Constant contact with the sun slowly dries up the natural fluids of the joints, causing the fingers, etc., to become swollen and stiff.

It is not until Rheumatism then Rheumatism will conquer you cannot do so with external applications, because they do not reach the cause, which is in the blood. It is all right to use any medicine that will give temporary relief from the pain of an attack of Rheumatism, but no one should forget that the vital and necessary treatment is that one which reaches and changes the character of the blood.

There is but one way to cure Rheumatism and that is to cleanse the blood of the uric acid poison. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation, and purifies the blood, and by removing every particle of the uric acid, which quiets the excited nerves, eases the throbbing joints, and filters out of the blood the irritating uric acid, every symptom of the disease. When the circulation is purified and enriched by S. S. S., it gradually nourishes the different members that have been affected, and impure blood. S. S. S. is entirely free from any harmful effects, and is perfectly safe for any one to take. Book on Rheumatism and medical advice free to all who write and request same.

BEACHEY DEFIES DEATH CURVE.

Flyer Cautions Above Spot Where Page Died.

Birdmen Climb High While Winds Roar.

Harrison, Tries to Stop Meet but Fails.

BY R. A. WYNNE.

A low heavy fog which swept in from the ocean enveloping Dominguez Field and the aviators in a misty blanket last night, made it impossible for the night's programme to be carried out as planned.

The United States ships Paul Jones, Preble and Perry, which are stationed in San Pedro Harbor, were playing their searchlights over the field and the stationary beacons on Dominguez Field were replying to the signaling. Everything seemed to be going fairly. The aviators were ready to make their ascensions and had their biplanes equipped with searchlights which would show them where and how to land.

Several hundred people had remained over from the afternoon programme for the night session and then the fog bank swept in from the ocean, completely obliterating the searchlights and attempts to signal. Arrangements are being made to have the programme ready for this evening.

About 2500 spectators and a score of aviators were held up for an hour yesterday afternoon at the aviation field by the intrusion of a temporary representative of the Aero Club of America, who endeavored to stop the afternoon's meet by declaring that he would "not permit" any aviator to mount into the air on account of the high wind.

George B. Harrison, who has been connected with aviation in Los Angeles for several years, was appointed by Prof. H. LaV. Twining of the Polytechnic High School as the "commissioner" of the meet by the Aero Club of America.

It seems that Prof. Twining and Harrison have been at loggerheads for some time and their first evidence of this was shown at the meeting of the aviators held in the Alexandria last Saturday night. They clashed and clashed hard.

Harrison at that time found fault with the way things were running and refused to certify to any altitude records made with the barographs then on hand, although Prof. Twining had stated that he had checked up the old Hoxsey barograph and that it was not perfect.

Yesterday Dick Ferris, who is running the present meet, arrived a little late on the ground. He realized that the wind was high and he was purposely delaying the explosion of the starting bomb until the wind would blow.

As Ferris was entering the grounds the bomb was set off and the meet was actually under way.

HARRISON BUTS IN. Ferris hurried to headquarters and found that Harrison had forbidden any aviator to go up on pain of having his license as a pilot taken from him. Harrison had forbidden Ferris, the boy aviator, to go up, and also Cooke of Oakland, who has been making such excellent records.

The matter was at a standstill. The other aviators were loath to go up for fear of the penalty.

Ferris and Harrison met and the speaker said:

Harrison claimed that he had a perfect right to stop any aviator from going on the ground as a pilot, as representative of the Aero Club of America.

Ferris denied this and told Harrison that he would release him or he would further duties at the meet, and removed from his arm the badge of starter.

"You left this meet yesterday," said Ferris, "without permission, and went on a joy ride in a balloon with Mr. and Mrs. Atwater. Then you come here and pretend to boss the job. I am manager of this meet and I want you to understand that. You have no right to order any aviators to not go up in the air."

"You do not know a thing about aviation," said Harrison, "and you are trying to kill some of these fellows. If we had let you go last Saturday you would have killed several."

Prof. LaV. Twining then approached and stated that he now Harrison had not the slightest thing to do with whether the aviators would or would not go up in the air. He stated that the rule of the Aero Club of America stated that when the wind was high that the matter should be left entirely to the aviators themselves and whatever they said would be correct. If they wanted to go they could go as they pleased and neither he nor Harrison had the slightest right to say nay.

AVIATORS WILLING. The aviators upheld Twining's stand and in a trice the flags were waving for the start of the first race.

All the aviators seemed to take the matter of a delay as a dare to do their best, and the flying of the afternoon was by far the best of the entire meet. Lincoln Beachey arose in the air and with evolutions that have never before been seen on Dominguez Field proved to the satisfaction of every one that a skilled aviator had no reason to fear the air currents that were running that day.

Beachey seemed to be filled with a pervasiveness of spirit that made him do things that were half-raising. He took a delight in making evolutions over the notorious "dead man's curve" at the lower end of the field where Arch Hoxsey and Rutherford Page met their death. This is the worst portion of the field and he picked it out to show what he could do.

Perhaps the most spectacular stunt

Clashing Aviation Principals.

George B. Harrison, left, and Dick Ferris, right, who fought a wordy duel at aviation field yesterday. Harrison "forbade" any aviator to make an ascension, and Ferris rebuffed him of his duties as starter.

THURSDAY'S PROGRAMME.

The following is the aviation programme for today:

automobile and motorcycle in the freak race yesterday, the man and horse having a long lead, easily running over the white line first.

"That air wizard, Lincoln Beachey, simply has the bird instinct; he can't fall or get hurt," was the way one aviator explained the daredevil's aerial daring yesterday after he had again thrilled the crowds.

Aviator Phil O. Parmelee certainly is having tough luck in trying to break the world's altitude record of 14,000 feet. On the first day of the meet he ascended 5000 feet, and was forced to return to earth when his barograph was broken. Yesterday he again had a broken instrument, and today after he had gone up several thousand feet he was compelled to return to the ground, as the two pocket instruments he carried were found to be worthless.

Glenn Martin was up in the air nearly as high as Lincoln Beachey when he volplaned from an altitude of 5000 feet. "Believe me, that boy did drop fast when his propellers stopped," exclaimed Martin afterward.

H. F. Kearney, the jolly birdman, was happier than ever yesterday afternoon when his best lady friend appeared in the center of the field and he had a photographer take a picture of her and himself seated in his aeroplane.

A woman souvenir hunter begged for the string which Parmelee used to tie his trouser leg around his shoe after he descended, after his high journey into the air. Phil gracefully complied with the request.

Lincoln Beachey seems to enjoy circling around the death curve at the northwest corner of the field, where Aviator Page was killed. Time and again he raced around the curve yesterday.

E. J. Ovington, the efficient and popular clerk of the course, certainly was a busy man when the free-for-all, the last race on the programme, was run yesterday. Besides taking Harrison's place as starter, he was a timer, chief of the police squad and clerk of the course.

Parmelee, the Wright biplane expert, won the five-mile handicap race, his time being 7m. 42s. Both the Beachey boys were out of the contest on account of engine trouble.

The death of Aviator Page does not seem to decrease the big crowds at Aviation Park. It is estimated that nearly 2000 persons enjoyed the events yesterday. Los Angeles people seem to be aviation mad, and day after day journey out to Dominguez field to see the daring aerial circus programme provided by General Manager Ferris.

WILL CHANGE GROUNDS.

The crowds that attended the Vernon-Portland games last season showed the managers of the Vernon and Los Angeles teams that the present plant was not large enough to accommodate the crowds and accordingly the Washington-street plant will be enlarged this year. The grand stand is to be extended further out on the left field bleachers and boxes are to be placed down in front of the bleachers. The details of these improvements have been mentioned in The Times and it is not necessary to repeat the information.

The training season will begin the first week in March, but not until after the real season opens April 2 will the fans know which players will be retained on either the Los Angeles or Vernon teams.

the White Queen in Alice would say,
"that nothing is any good that's any fun, and nothing's any fun that's any good."

But seriously, never could the man-nitude of the great actor's preference have fallen on prettier shoulders than those which at present it graces.

For surely, Mrs. Mantell is Clytie come to life. Surely, one might sometimes think of giving her flesh and blood, she just stepped from off a pillow in Brutus's garden.

She even has curly hair. I fancy that curly hair was the last straw to the serious.

Why will any "All her good fortune on the stage, her famous husband and her beauty—oh, they might have spared us that; they might have given her straight hair!"

"Have you ever attended a dramatic school?"

"No, not for a minute."
"Private theatricals, of course?"

"No, I had never been on the stage until I went on to play Jessica."

"Lots of rehearsals, of course?"

"Only one."
"No, this is not a fairy story, nor a dialogue in the Trotter Books, nor an Orpheum "kid." It's the fatal gift of shorthand, I can vouch for its being a verbatim report of an interview with that lovely Clytie person.

"Try to be playing leading Shakespearean parts right at the beginning."

"Oh, I just walked up to Mr. Man-tell one day in Chicago last season, and told him I should like to go on the stage."

"Isn't it simple, girls?"

"But how do you account for being "shaken?"

"Well, if it hadn't been for that yellow umbrella—but I'll let Mr.
Mantell tell that."

"But how on earth—"

"Well, you know, there are such a lot of people who don't make up well for the classic drama."

"Yes, I had to admit there are a lot of people who don't look a bit like Clytie."

"And they needed some one. So they took me."

All the same, I can just imagine the joy of Mr. Shakespeare in Mantell's fields, singing poems of joy (whatever those are), at having one so simple and unadorned, and yet the women, who won't read erudite meanings into the limp grace of his lines, but will speak them naturally and trippingly, as the longest, who won't discover that Romeo and Juliet is the mystic symbol of ecstatic Buddhism, that King Lear signifies something prophetic about Roosevelt's plans; that "Richard the Third" is the key to anything, or that Macbeth proves the cumulative theory of atoms.

And she doesn't believe that Bacon or Deople or Ptolemy wrote Shakespeare, either.

She took the mantle of her tacit-urn and the funny bob-tailed turban, and then she went down before the mirror to wipe the make-up off her straight little nose, and her straight little nose, and from around her brown eyes—and then went over and sat on the trunk and swung her legs as she talked to me of her "confession" of Shakespearean women.

"But why always those parts which make me match cold in my own tears?" I ask.

But I found her conceptions interesting, if a little naive, when she would have thought of Jessica as a "mean little thing."

"I think Jessica is a mean little thing," she laughs. "The idea of going off with all those things of her papa?"

"Then how can you play the part?"

"Oh, I try to be a mean little thing."

How one hopes that delicious ingeniousness will never crystallize into unnatural naturalness—one has seen it done!

As for Rosalind, she thinks Rosalind was a "nice" girl. And that, as for Mrs. Macbeth, she wasn't really after all—for wasn't she an entirely devoted wife? (It would take the instinct of a devoted wife to discover that, I thought.)

She thinks too, that the conception of Desdemona as a person who trampled into the terms of today, wears a hobble and do burned leather work, is wrong. She believes Desdemona had all the stuff of a heroine in her, and that if she had had a chance, she would have rowed out in a boat and saved the lighthouse, or something.

But those Shakespearean roles—how did you manage them?"

"Mr. Mantell says the least you know about Shakespeare and the stage, the better you can play Cordelia."

"That was charmingly modest. How could she know I had tried to play Cordelia, once, and that the manager of the private theatricals where the whole thing happened did not leave on my mind the slightest impression that I had failed because I knew too much—not for a moment?"

It is true she has no stage tricks. She is just her delicious self.
—but she has a mood for every part.
She hopes she will never learn to "play" her eyes for instance. It is perfectly easy to tell what color her eyes are, for they look at you without any artifice, she neither works them nor gives you any hint. I suppose she does know on which side of her cerebral compound the actual product is situated, but she doesn't give that impression for a moment.

All my parts are real to me," she say, "I even try to think the character, during my waits."

Seriously, I believe it's her power to make her characters those of today, in which I discern the powerful influence of Mr. Mantell—that may make her a great actress some day. For all through his plays, one discerns this naturalizing of the characters, so to speak, making them vivid, in spite of the long distance language and the funny clothes.
On Thursday, she plays Marie, in "Louis XI." For the first time, she says she's dreadfully frightened, but that she's appealing look, she could just stand and deliver the alphabet backwards, and the audience would not stand for it, but would applaud.

But after all, she takes only an instant interest in her own success.
It's when you speak of her husband's greatness, her face lights up in a flash of joy, and she says: "Oh, isn't he wonderful!"

"Please come up, Robert!" she claps her hands in a little Juliet gesture over the balcony of her sky-high dressing room, and calls to him below. "You know I so often say all the wrong things to the reporter."

Well, that's not necessarily distasteful.

FIGHTS FIRE.

While many slept at Palm Springs yesterday morning long before sun-up the little home of A. I. Maxwell, a desert farmer, was destroyed by fire.

James J. Canavan, who drove the fire truck, was one of the first to answer the call of Mrs. Maxwell.

Canavan, half-dressed, rushed to the house and after working with buckets of water for more than an hour, succeeded in saving only a few charred sticks. His triumph came, however, when he grabbed the toy baby wagon from the fire before it had been scorched and ran with it to little 3-year-old Kermit Maxwell, who was clinging to his mother's skirts with his sister Helen scared almost to death.

It was a pathetic group, that little desert family, but when a beautiful woman in the party promised to send little Helen another doll, better than the one she had lost, and two blue hair ribbons to replace the ones destroyed in the fire, the sob of the little homeless children ceased and happiness reigned once more in the oasis of the desert.

There was a reception at Banning today when the men of the town on the desert's edge greeted the tourists warmly and sent them chugging on to El Cacho, where a large delegation of Riverside townsmen, headed by Mayor
Peters, greeted the tourists. W. B.
Clancy of the Citizens' Bank was one of the Riversideans and Supervisor
Earl Karlton among the others.

Frank Miller waited at the Glenwood Inn to make the welcome certain. As the cars neared the handsome hotel, the chimes sounded and the good cheer commenced. At an after-dinner speech Manager Miller

"I have not had any starling adventure, so far as the desert is concerned, but I have had a most interesting experience. I have been in the desert for five years and have not one has married, deserted or died.
And they are on their first Amerimillionaires. And still they have survived in a tour from Coast to Coast is a problem if the desert remains intact when ship is taken for dear old London—by Lloyd's insurers."

Representatives of employees in alleged collision at Broadway and Ocean streets, Long Beach, last night, in which four persons were more or less seriously injured, a dozen more were so wrecked that it was necessary to carry them to the shops.

The accident occurred at a time when the traffic of the road was at its height and haste was required to get the cars on the regular schedule. According to a statement given out by the company, car No. 93 of the Long Beach and Ocean avenue line had crossed a short distance from a cross street to the scene of the accident to a plunger to alight. While the car was standing, it is asserted, another car, No. 225 of the Pine and Ocean line, Conductor Warren Letts and driver, made a flying jump to reach the opposite side of the road without warning, backed into the standing car, knocking both cars and passengers to splinters.

Mr. McMillan, No. 1255 West Second street, was about to step off the rear end of an auto-truck belonging to the Atlantic Transfer Company as it was being turned into the company's place of business, No. 823 Maple avenue, last night. Louis Maspro, the driver, and Ross Titus, his helper, were thrown to the street. Both men were seriously injured in the fall and received medical treatment at the office of the company. Maspro subsequently was removed to his home at Inglewood Ranch.

TERIBLY GASHED.
Letts was sitting in the driver's seat of his car holding the steering wheel and was thrown face down on the floor of the car. His head was smashed and one of his eyes almost torn off. In addition to these injuries it is thought that he may have received an injury to his eyes, which was injured when the car was struck. He had been suffering as the result of a nervous breakdown for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey came West from Chicago six weeks ago. It was believed that the climate of Arizona would improve Mrs. Bailey's health and they located at Castle Rock Hot Springs. They were contemplating coming to Los Angeles to live in a few days.

Mrs. Bailey had many friends here, having lived in Los Angeles when her husband was auditor of the Coast line of the Santa Fe ten years ago.

crews were dispatched to the scene and cleared the line after the traffic had been delayed for some time. The wreckage was towed to the barn at Long Beach.

Some of the passengers on the Ocean avenue line asserted that the accident was due to the fact that the car had run by the regular stopping place and was brought to a standstill in the middle of the block just as the other car came over the cross switch. Representatives of the company assert that the blame has been fixed on the car that backed into the cross-over switch without making certain that the line was clear.

AUTO AND CAR COLLIDE.
While driving a powerful touring car in front of his place of business, W. W. Kelm, a druggist at Washington street and Normandie avenue, was thrown off last night as the result of a collision with Washington street car No. 1123. The injured driver was picked up by spectators but refused to go to a hospital.

The front of the street car was so damaged that the services of the company's wrecker were necessary to drag it to the barn. None of the passengers was hurt, although some of the women were frightened and attempted to jump from the car but were restrained by cooler heads.

Representatives of the street car company assert that the accident was the result of the automobile skidding directly in front of the moving car.

FENDER SAVES WOMAN.
Becoming confused while attempting to cross Seventh and Spring streets late yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Dr. M. A. Fairchild of No. 1430 Santa Fe avenue ran in front of moving University car No. 159 and would have fallen under the wheels but for the fender.

The imperiled woman was picked up and carried on the fender across the street before the car was brought under control. She was lifted to the sidewalk, where she asserted that no bones had been broken and that apparently she had suffered only a bruised arm. Mrs. Fairchild declined medical attention and was taken to her home.

TWO SERIOUSLY INJURED.
Running at high speed, south-bound Maple avenue car No. 276 crashed into the rear end of an auto-truck belonging to the Atlantic Transfer Company as it was being turned into the company's place of business, No. 823 Maple avenue, last night. Louis Maspro, the driver, and Ross Titus, his helper, were thrown to the street. Both men were seriously injured in the fall and received medical treatment at the office of the company. Maspro subsequently was removed to his home at Inglewood Ranch.

THE POLITICAL WATCHTOWER.
Dear old Lunnun is talking about the Los Angeles "Municipal News," which isn't at all yet. Editor Stead, who knows most everything, tells the British public through the London Chronicle that the Los Angeles "Municipal News" really is, but this is denied by another great editor, George H. Dunlop, really man and former Mayor of our own Hollywood. Dunlop is chairman, or will be, of the newspaper commission when it becomes really existent next Saturday. The other members will be Dr. T. V. Garzon, physician and socialist, and H. O. Wheeler, Jr., a young lawyer. Next Saturday the commission will be in legal position for the first time to say what it will do and when it will do it. Dunlop said yesterday that after next Saturday, it will probably take sixty days for the commission to name a manager, make printing contracts, buy paper and organize a free distributing system. So it is likely Editor Stead's visual knowledge of the Los Angeles freak will be far off.

Editor Stead tells how a quarter of a century ago he urged the Car of all the Russias to direct one of his ministers to get out an imperial newspaper. But the Car ignored the sage of the Strand.

"It is a far cry from St. Petersburg to Los Angeles," said Stead. "In his comments. He declares the establishment of a municipal newspaper by the electorate of Los Angeles was the most important act of that most important election last December.

Dunlop is receiving requests from all over the world for information about the paper. Some even send real money for subscriptions. Some only ask questions or give advice. In the United States the inquiries are more numerous and the money less. Day unto day adds to the responsibility to humanity being super-imposed on a project. By the adoption of the ordinance proposed by Dunlop the newspaper is subsidized by the taxpayers to the tune of $36,000 a year, which Editor Stead finds a circumstance to chuckle over. In fact he expresses the hope that some of the British cities will follow suit—and not the London County Council, which he says, for obscure reasons, is not expected to do such a thing.

But Editor Stead, seeing clearly out of the London fog, finds one fact that seems to be common to Los Angeles. While the scheme is great he finds the editor a prospective martyr. He says: "The post of the unfortunate editor who has to be presided over by a commission of three, whose appointment in the first instance by the Mayor is to be ratified by a plebiscite of the citizens, will not exactly be a happy one, and it would be extremely interesting to see how the journal prospers under such complicated control."

Newspaper men of Los Angeles agree with Editor Stead, especially those who have been before the commission's doctor, lawyer and reality agent, to discuss newspaper management. Just how to satisfy the whims of such a trio, one of whom is a Socialist, and get out a newspaper is beyond Ken of the ability and experience of those who have been interrogated.

A combination of allopathic editorials, insurgent politics and New High street jurisprudence makes most of the trained men quail. Between the diabolical of a commission on one side and the deep sea of a critical public on the other the new municipal editor promises to become Stead's "unfortunate."

One of the numerous candidates for the position of editor is the man selected by E. T. Earl to manage his Tribune. The Times is informed that Earl, frantic over the financial losses of his paper, is anxious to combine it with the municipal paper and thus find success for his sorrows.

In selecting his manager the commission has considered a dozen or so who wanted or didn't want the job. The man must furnish the newspaper brains for the commission, subject to the ordinance, the initiative, referendum and recall, must be editor, advertising manager, head typist, circulation manager and chief artist for the princely salary of $50 a week. He must be the chief promoter of the views of the administration, as reflected by the last election, and be able to somewhat whenever the people do so by balloting. In effect he is to be high priest of the established newspaper of the municipal government and Editor Stead wonders if an established paper, the mouthpiece of those in power, will have any better fate than an established religion, with a subsidized hierarchy.

Next Saturday the ordinance appointing the commission will be in full force and effect, and thereafter the "Municipal News" will be going concern to the tune of $3600 a month of the taxpayers money, plus all income. Perhaps if progress becomes impeded Editor Stead may be brought over to expert the task. Or by that time we may all be Cezars.

Bakersfield Man Meets Friend in Saloon, Knocks Him Down and Gets Pocketful of Bogus Coins; Friend Is Arrested for "Making Money" and So Is Assailant.

Probably the most disgusted man in California is John Doherty, of Bakersfield, news of whose arrest was received yesterday by Secret Service Agent Hasen. His apprehension, for assault, followed that of Henry Collins, on the charge of making and passing counterfeit money.

Collins was in Bakersfield trying to get rid of a lot of the stuff. Doherty met him in a drinking place and Collins showed him "money," with the result that after he became intoxicated Doherty knocked him down and robbed him of fourteen of the bogus coins, which he thought to be good money.

The next day Collins was arrested for counterfeiting and Doherty immediately cashed the coins, fearful that if the stuff was found on him he would get into trouble for having it in his possession. He buried it in the rear of his residence where he supposed it would be safe until all fear of arrest was over.

Doherty was recognized and apprehended on the charge of assaulting

Fearing that there might be a flare back and that the allegation against him was merely to cover up the more serious charge, he confessed to Deputy Sheriff Badger and took him to the place where the bogus coins were buried. Under the circumstances Doherty cannot be prosecuted by the Federal authorities but he is said to be certain of conviction on the assault charge.
